

March 5, 1975

CLERK: 22 ayes, 13 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The House is under call. Kindly clear the chamber please while the House is under call, all non-senatorial personnel. All Senators take their chairs. Senator Cope is, while we're waiting for people, wishes to introduce 19 graduate students in the North balcony from Kearney State. Welcome to the Legislature.

CLERK: Senator Frank Lewis voting aye on the original motion. Senator Anderson voting aye, Senator Warner voting no. Senator Simpson voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR GOODRICH: I move the call be raised.

CLERK: Senator Burrows voted no and he previously voted no, is that right?

SENATOR GOODRICH: He changed from aye to nay. It's a no . . . no to yes.

CLERK: Thank you. Senator Burrows changing from no to aye.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Right.

PRESIDENT: The question is raising the call. Record your vote. Record Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 34 ayes to raise the call.

PRESIDENT: The call is raised. Senator Marsh, for what purpose . . .

SENATOR MARSH: Excuse me. I changed my vote to aye for purposes of reconsideration. Has he announced the vote?

PRESIDENT: The vote is changed.

CLERK: Changing from no to aye. 26 ayes, 15 nays, remainder not voting.

PRESIDENT: The original motion carries. Senator Marsh, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, I move that we reconsider this amendment and I'd like to tell you what this body just did. This body said we'll not adopt a poor amendment that was offered by Senator Goodrich on Friday. Then it had the good wisdom to say again we'll not adopt it on Wednesday, March 5th. But it has said we'll let him show his poor sportsmanship by adding another amendment which louses up the piece of legislation. I will be back and asking for this very amendment as soon as Lancaster county and Sarpe county have the personnel and can cope with it. This is the direction that we are moving nationally in the field of child abuse. This was one of the things I learned when I left this body to attend the National Conference on Child Abuse the early
